The Wake Astern

COMMANDER

Cdr Larry Warren. AP

Here we are in a brand new shiny year. Just what happened to 2017 is beyond me. I'm not even sure where December went. I found myself busy from the first part and then it was gone. For one thing, the old saying "be careful of what you wish for" came true for a lot of us this Christmas. First thing's first. Our Christmas brunch was a great time with lots of people attending, an excellent time to visit and keep in touch with friends and family. Santa was there to see children young and old and thanks to your generosity we gathered many gifts for Bridges, the center for greaving children. My sincere thanks to all who gave so much for the table centerpieces. Be sure to attend the January Cruise-In, we'll have some great door prizes, fun, and food.

Ok, so the rest of my December was a blur, with Santa visiting at many locations and trying to decorate in and out of the house, there never seems to be enough time. With an anticipation of at least 30 people over for Christmas Eve and another crowd on Christmas, everything had to be just right. Well, the scene set, everything is done and the expectation of the big night is high. Fast forward to Christmas Eve. The roast just in the oven and guests arriving in a few hours, we notice light snow falling outside and of course say, "oh look a white Christmas!" Within hours we're getting phone calls of cancelations because of the snow. Sending a text to all our guests that if you're not comfortable coming down our very steep hill, just park at the top, and we'll get you in the jeep. Well, it was a lovely evening, and we did go and bring one couple in, but four couples could not get their cars out, and now we're a bed and breakfast for eight guests. I didn't know we had so many blankets and pillows. Everyone made it out by Christmas afternoon with the help of a tow. Unfortunately, we had to cancel our Christmas dinner; no one was coming or going without a four-wheel drive vehicle. We'll attempt Christmas dinner later this month and see how that goes. Hope your Holidays were a little less hectic and a Happy new year to all!

I hope everyone had a great Christmas. Jackie & I rode the bus to Spokane to spend the holidays with our son and his family. Had a great time, a white Christmas, but glad to be back home where the temperature is above freezing.

January looks to be a very busy month. Starting Tuesday, January 9th, our monthly Executive Board Meeting, followed by our annual Cruise-In at Point Ruston on Saturday, January 20th (details for this event are included in this edition of The Wake Astern). Next on the list is our General Meeting at DIYC on January 23rd, 2018. Finishing out the month, the Seattle Boat Show takes place on January 26th thru February 3rd.

Our first boat outing happens February 23rd to 25th at Arabella's Marina in Gig Harbor. I'll be glad to get out on the water again.

Century Apartments at Point Ruston Cruise-In

P/C Jackie Mattox, AP

The Century Apartments Cruise-In will be happening On January 20th, 2018. The party room at Century Apartments is reserved from 1430 until 2100 with a great full kitchen. Because there is limited seating, you might want to bring a folding chair. We'll start out with appetizers until our meal at 1800. The theme for our dinner will be soups, stews, and chilies, along with salads, bread, and desserts. The Squadron will provide bowls, plates, utensils, cups, and coffee. Please decide what you would like to bring and email or call Jackie Mattox or Cindy Warren. If you come early take a stroll along the Water Walk Esplanade, visit the Asarco Copper Smelter Museum, or take in a movie. There are also numerous restaurants such as Two Town Café, Wild Fin, Stack 571 Burger and Whiskey Bar, The Jewel Box, Dulce Si Italian Bakery and Café, and Farrelli's Pizza.

WHEN YOU ARRIVE PLEASE CALL JACKIE'S CELL PHONE 253-732-2264 SO WE CAN LET YOU IN.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT

*Lt/C Sandi Carroll, SN
Asst. Education Officer*

The Seamanship Class took the exam on December 14th at T.Y.C. I will be doing the exam with a few students on December 21st, to complete the class. Then we await the grading results from our National Headquarters.

We take a short holiday break and then get classes underway. The Weather Class by Stan Wolfe, JN-CN will start at Tacoma Yacht Club on Thursday, January 25, 2018 at 7:00 PM in the Burgee Room. If you have an interest in this class, please contact me so that adequate materials can be ordered.

Next on our Educational agenda is an ABC Basic Boating Class set to start on Wednesday February 07, 2018 at Genesis Health Care (Orchard Park Health & Rehab)- 4755 South 48th Street Tacoma WA 98409 at 7:00 PM. This class follows right behind the Seattle Boat Show for those that sign up for a class in our area at the show.

On Thursday February 22, 2018 we will start a Piloting Class at Genesis Health Care at 7:00 PM. This will be instructed by Gary Ball, JN who did this class for Tacoma last Spring. Again if you have an interest in the Piloting Class contact me so we can get materials covered.

I am still looking for volunteers willing to help instruct members and fellow boaters in on the water boat handling. We get requests for instruction in regard to departing, docking and close quarter handling. In general slow speed boat maneuvering. If you could give us a hand, please let me know.

We need a host for the ABC Class that starts February 07, 2018. There are 4 instruction sessions and the exam. A total of 5 meetings. The host would assist the presenter with the computer-Power Point set up if needed, go over the prior week's home work answers, and turn the class over to the presenter for that evening's class. It's not required for the host to stay for the entire instruction session. Lt Brenda Williamson has business travel at this February time frame and will need someone to cover when she is out of town. If you are able to help, please contact Otto or Brenda.

We hope all have had a great holiday season and wish good cheer to all, Otto & Sandi ph-253-537-3838 hm 253-921-3839 cell, email otto@ottorasmussen.com
