COMMANDER

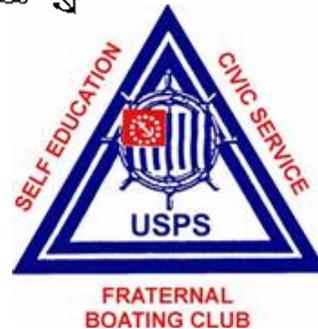

Cdr Larry Warren, AP

Here it is, fall is upon us once again. With the Washington State Fair in full swing, the nights are longer, and the spiders are getting ready for colder weather and moving into the house. Fall brings many changes to our surroundings with the beautiful change of the trees. The apples fall off the trees for the deer to feed. I only collect a few so we can make some pies, but other than that the animals get them. The cooler mornings and of course getting up when it's still dark is such a change from our summer habits. A significant change in routines is getting back into the swing of Squadron activities. We had our first board meeting after the summer break and getting ready for the Past Cdrs' BBQ and general meeting September 26th.

Your squadron has had a busy summer despite the break. We had a meet and greet at Cabela's with vessel safety checks. We attended a safety stand down at JBLM, gave a paddle smart presentation at Point Defiance, two Boating Safety 4 Kids classes, participation in The Ranger Regatta held at TYC, and many many Vessel Safety checks. We appreciate all the volunteers it took to keep these activities going throughout the summer. I hope for a continued commitment to the Civic Service side of our USPS triangle.

We're looking forward to a Fall and Winter filled with various classes; we hope you benefit from some of them. One of the first is an ABC class being held at TYC September 14th. Don't forget to let our education department know if there is a subject or course you would like to take. That's the first step. Please take the next step and help out when you can. We're almost always looking for help in grading ABC tests and meeting with prospective members. Looking forward to seeing many of you at the P/C BBQ and general meeting.

Our summer cruising schedule is winding down: Swantown was our last official rendezvous for the 2017 boating season. We had a great time in Olympia over the Labor Day holiday weekend. The annual Tug Boat races, the Farmers Market, and of course, two great potluck meals made for a very enjoyable time. The down side: near 90 degree temperatures throughout the day time hours. The up side: it did cool down after sunset. A big “Thank You” to Larry & Cindy Warren and Tom & Rebecca Ferree for hosting.

With the Fall season just around the corner, it looks to be a busy time for the Tacoma Power Squadron. ABC Basic Boating classes, District 16 Fall Conference, October 27 – 29, planning next year’s Rendezvous schedule, and last but not least, seeking volunteers to fill a number of important, soon to be vacant, positions: Commander, Executive Officer, Administrative Officer, and a number of committee heads and members. We belong to a great organization and if it wasn’t for you, the members, the United States Power Squadron’s would not exist. So please give serious thought of giving back. You won’t have to go it alone. We will give you all the support you need.

Asst. Education Officer*

An ABC Basic Boating Class has started on September 14th 07:00 PM-09:00PM, and is taking place at the Tacoma Yacht Club. The exam will be on October 12th, 2017. Some extra help grading and going over the exams with the students is always appreciated. Come and lend a hand and help us acquire some new members.

I was hoping to do a Seamanship Class following the T.Y.C. ABC Basic Class. Our Seamanship instructor, Lance Williamson, is unable to instruct this fall due to his work commitments. He would make the teaching aids and lesson plans available if we can get some volunteers to do one or two sessions each and put the class on. This worked very well with the Engine Maintenance Class we did last spring when Mark Hafterson was unable to do the instruction. Please see me at our meeting, or give me a call or Email and we can discuss it. The time frame would be October 19th through December 14th, 2017.

We are looking at a tentative Weather Class in October. The exact date and location will be announced as soon as we can get all our ducks in a row with the students, facilities, and the instructor, who is out of town on business as this is being written. If the Weather Class is of interest to you, give me a call or Email, we still have room for students.

We could use some volunteers willing to go out with skippers that are desirous for on the water demonstration of various aspects of boat handling. We are getting requests for this activity. If you would be willing to help out, please let me know so we can assist these skippers. I can fill you in on the details.

Your SEO, me,
(OTTO) could use some help. I have a health condition that over time restricts the amount of physical activity that I can engage in. This condition does not improve, it's something I must accept. What I am asking for is for some assistance in doing the tasks of the Squadron SEO. If you would be willing to give me a hand, it would be appreciated by me and the Squadron.

Cheers, Otto & Sandi

Washington State Legislative News

Submitted by P/C Pat Lemagie, AP

Boater's Bulletin

August 29, 2017

Update from the State Parks Boating Program

Greetings, Boaters!

The 2017 Legislature enacted legislation that affects recreational boaters. And U.S. Coast Guard regulations regarding Hull Identification Numbers have been a source of angst among many boaters. We wanted to give you an update on these hot topics.

2017 Legislative Changes

Vessel impound authority. The Legislature passed House Bill 1605, giving marine law enforcement officers the authority to impound a vessel if they arrest the operator for boating under the influence and cannot find another qualified operator to take control of the vessel. This law created due process and protections for boaters as well as officers. The law went into effect on July 23, 2017. The Department of Licensing is currently working on developing the Vessel Impound Authorization and Vessel Foreclosure forms.older text.

Some key provisions in the new law (RCW 79A.60.045) include:

- Officers must exhaust reasonable alternatives before they impound the vessel—such as calling friends or relatives of the operator to come take control of the vessel.
- Officers have the authority to trailer a vessel if the operator is incapable.
- Officers must have the permission of the facility where the vessel will be stored prior to leaving it there.
- The impounding officer must provide a vessel impound authorization and inventory form to the legal and registered owner or owners within one business day following the impound.
- If an impounded vessel is not redeemed within 15 days, then a foreclosure process can begin.

Visual distress signals exempted from the definition of a firearm. The Legislature passed Senate Bill 5552, amending Washington's firearm law. Flare guns or other pyrotechnic visual distress signaling devices are now excluded from the definition of firearm. (RCW 9.41.010)

Verification of Hull Identification Numbers

In 2012, the U.S. Coast Guard passed a regulation requiring all agencies registering or titling vessels to verify that Hull Identification Numbers (HIN) conform to federal regulations during the re-registration process. The Department of Licensing (DOL), and their agents, is responsible for implementing this regulation. We are providing a few facts and tips to help inform boaters about the issue.

- In 1972, the U.S. Coast Guard began requiring all vessel manufacturers to permanently affix the HIN on all vessels. The purpose was to give the Coast Guard an easier way to recall unsafe vessels. It also helps law enforcement track stolen vessels.
- There are three approved formats of the HIN. A vessel's HIN format must conform to the standard that was in effect the year the vessel was manufactured. DOL is responsible for verifying this when a boat is registered.
- Boaters are responsible for verifying the HIN on their boat matches the HIN on the vessel registration documents. If it does not, we recommend taking a picture of the HIN and bringing it to a registration office.
- Earlier this year, the DOL sent letters to 19,000 vessel owners they identified as potentially having non-conforming HINs. If you received this letter, you may need a new HIN issued.
- The State Parks Boating Program has no oversight of the HIN regulation or process. Please work directly with DOL. If you have questions, contact the DOL customer help line at 360-902-3900. TTY users, please call 360-664-0116.

Bell Harbor Rendezvous

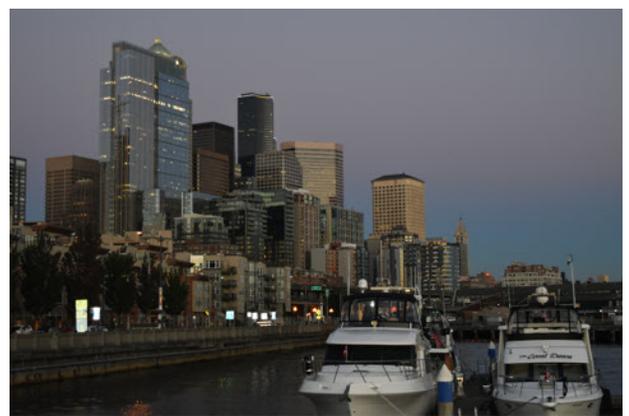

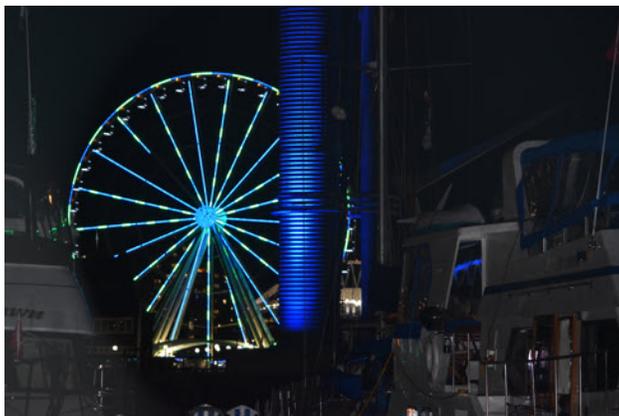

September 1 – 4, 2017

Hosts P/C Mike & Jenna Ashbrook

Bell Harbor always offers a plethora of activity and plenty to do. For those attending, we enjoyed Hors D’oeuvres Friday evening and a potluck breakfast Saturday morning. Enjoying the beautiful summer weather, many traveled to the market while others relaxed dockside. It was another fun-filled, people watching, dog watching, boat watching weekend.

Attendees:

- Todd and Melinda Mackey – August
- Connie Thompson, Diana & Stan Blanchard – MistyMorn
- Mark and Leah Hafterson – Loose Moose Deuce
- Larry and Cindy Warren – Fascination
- Otto, Christine, Quinn and Ryan Rasmussen – Misty Christy V
- Mike and Jenna Ashbrook – R Lil’ Ship

Ideal Comfort - Bob and Pam Gunther

Some of the weekend highlights were the typical Swantown Labor Day events: the Olympia Harbor Days Tugboat Races & Festival, Tall Ships, and Farmer's Market. However, did our rendezvous hosts settle for just that? No way! Our hosts prepared a Saturday breakfast of waffles and fresh fruit with all the trimmings plus a dinner spread of pulled pork sandwiches, corn on the cob, bean dish, Cesar salad and cookies for dessert.

Sunday morning was primarily devoted to preparing our veggie racers for our 1:00 PM race event. The Veggie Race Track and trophies (designed and built by our Commander/Craftsman) was set up and the voting and racing commenced almost on time. The voting and racing was very popular with other boaters as they passed by on the dock. Lots of very nice comments. Race results and pictures are at the end of this article. I'm sure our members who witnessed this event will be talking about it for a long time. Hopefully we will do it again, so start thinking about your veggie design for next year.

Sunday evening we settled down for our traditional Power Squadron potluck. Not sure why it's called a potluck, it was more like a 15 course meal, thanks to wonderful chefs. Oops, I almost forgot, did someone say ice cream? Saturday and Sunday night we had sherbet and ice cream thanks to Cindy.

Monday everyone headed home. The marina was pretty much empty by noon. A few boats took advantage of the new fuel dock prior to leaving.
